SITTING ON A COOLER...

Serving Jesus through Circle G Ministry has been full of firsts. First time preaching on horseback. First time putting together our own website. And here's my new favorite...first time sharing the Gospel while sitting on a cooler.

BJ just had the privilege of doing a trailer loading demo (LEFT) followed by preaching at a Wagon Train Revival (LEFT). At the end of the service, I had the honor of leading a precious young woman (ABOVE) to Jesus. Sitting on a cooler. On the back side of a barn. Wiping our tears with hot dog napkins.

Folks, this makes us very, very happy. Thanks for joining us on this crazy, wonderful adventure. Thanks for catching the vision for ministry both inside the church AND outside its walls. Thanks for enabling us to take the Gospel to where people are, whether it's a local church, a barn in North Carolina, or a ranch dining hall in Missouri. There's a whole world of broken, hurting people out there, and we need to bring them the hope found only in Jesus Christ. We're so blessed to have you on the team!

WELCOME TO THE RED ROOF INN!

In the month of June, we drove just under 6,000 miles. For two weeks, as we crossed the country for preaching engagements in Wyoming, Missouri, and elsewhere, we camped in our truck. It was an absolute blast! We did learn a few things about truck camping, though. In the future, we'll avoid creepy rest areas, Walmart parking lots, and hotel sprinkler systems. Making memories!

LOOKING AHEAD...

We can't say enough good about Ken McNabb and his willingness to allow us to share the Gospel at his clinics and events. BJ loves getting to help Ken teach horsemanship (ABOVE) and, most importantly, hold Cowboy Church services (BELOW).
